LANCASTER COURT.—There were a number of cattle at Lancaster yesterday, but buyers were scarce and very few sales were made. A small bunch of butcher cattle brought 24c and some yearlings 4c. A number of mule colts changed hands at $17 to $40 and aged mules $75 to $140. The horse market was dull.

Dr. P. W. Logan left at this office Saturday some Oklahoma corn which is very much unlike that raised here. The sample of "squaw," or primitive corn has grains of every color of the rainbow. Call in and get a few grains. Dr. Logan was considerably impressed with Oklahoma but has no idea of leaving Kentucky. He also left samples of the original Russian or Turkey wheat, introduced into Kansas and known there as Kansas hard wheat. It yields from 15 to 50 bushels per acre and weighs 64 pounds to the bushel and having a hard, small grain is much sought after by exporters. As this wheat is well suited for very severe climates the doctor advises the farmers to try it here. Call at the I. J. office and see samples.

Charles M. Hays, the retiring president of the Southern Pacific, will become railroad expert for J. P. Morgan & Co. Later he will be made president of one of the Morgan railroad combinations.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

J. D. Rowland's residence at Corbin burned, causing a $1,500 loss.

William Roberts, of Pine Hill, keeps 40 dogs to guard his premises.

J. E. and J. I. Higgs were acquitted at Nicholasville for killing John Marshall.

Col. Sam M. Boone, formerly of Somerset, is now local editor of the Mountain Echo.

John Wesley, of Middleburg, has bought J. A. Seay's stock of goods at Perryville.

The authorities of Burgin declined an offer of $3,000 for the exclusive right to sell whisky in that town.

The L. & N. has just completed a large and handsome Young Men's Christian Association Hall at Corbin. The structure cost $3,000 and is elegantly fitted up.

Reuben Gentry passed through with three car loads of choice stock from Blitmore. He was on his way to the Buffalo Exposition, where he confidently expects to win several blue ties.—Danville News.

A Negro who outraged and murdered a white woman near Winchester, Tenn., was captured and despite assurances of a prompt trial, was taken from the jail by a mob and burned at the stake. The trouble came up over a woman.

Charles Holman, a late candidate for jailer, has brought suit through his attorney, C. C. Williams, against J. F. Simms for slander and asks damages in the sum of $5,000. Holman alleges that Simms charged him in his race with having sold his vote. Simms denies it.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

Robert B. Craft, formerly of London, died suddenly at Manchester, where he was practicing law. He complained of being chilly and went to his room where the landlady found him dead an hour later. The remains were taken to London for interment. Mr. Craft was a bright young man and a good lawyer.

The republicans of Madison nominated the following ticket Saturday for county officers: Representative, T. S. Burnam; Judge, E. C. Million; Attorney, E. Tutt Burnam; Sheriff, W. C. West; Jailor, George Young; Clerk, J. C. Hendren; Assessor, John W. Moores; Surveyor, James T. Boggs; Coroner, Fred Walker. The democrats will be on a woman's shoe made.

Robert B. Craft, formerly of London, died suddenly at Manchester, where he was practicing law. He complained of being chilly and went to his room where the landlady found him dead an hour later. The remains were taken to London for interment. Mr. Craft was a bright young man and a good lawyer.

Wheat is slowly but surely advancing, 60 to 65c being the market here now.

Miss Theo Hemphill entertained at tea in honor of her guest, Mr. Lawson Boxley, of Cynthians.

The Christian Endeavor Sunday evening was led by Mrs. Dr. Burnett in a most impressive manner. Subject, "Daily Prayer." Miss Frankie Kaufman will lead next Sunday evening.

On Sunday evening, Rev. Leonidas Robinson, of the Methodist church, delivered an excellent discourse on "Salt Lake City and Its Religion." A large and appreciative audience was present.

Senator George T. Farris was heard to remark the other day, "Oh, I am not afraid of Cochran. It is true he will win in one county, but I shall win in three." This is the opinion of every democrat in this section.

Prof. J. H. Patterson and Judge M. D. Hughes are sparing neither time, energy nor money in making necessary preparations in order that their entertainment shall be a success, which it is sure to be. There are to be 11 entries and all of the best talent to be found anywhere. With two such excellent gentlemen hold of a thing, it should be a success in every way.

Miss Marietta Crow, of South Brock street, Louisville, is the charming guest of the Misses Arnold, on Danville Avenue. Robert Elkin will leave Wednesday for Lexington, where he will attend Smith's Business College. J. R. Sims has returned to Richmond, after a pleasant visit to Shelby Tribune. Miss Jennie Lackey has returned from a visit to Danville friends. Miss Lizzie Brown is in Indianapolis for a two weeks' visit. Miss Bessie Batson attended the Brodhead fair. Miss Greenleaf, of St. Louis, is the guest of Mrs. Emma Kaufman. Mrs. R. Brown Crow is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Brown. Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Rigney and daughter, Lena, have gone to Louisville to attend the conclave. Miss Smiley, of Lexington, is expected this week to visit Miss Mattie Thompson. Miss Allie Arnold visited in Danville last week. Mesdames Landrum and Rice are in Louisville attending the conclave.

There were 321 accredited delegates at the Sunday School Convention in Danville, 65 counties and 12 denominations being represented. During the sessions of the convention $1,012 was subscribed for the purpose of carrying on the work in the Sunday-schools during the coming year. J. H. Weaver, of Louisville, was elected president.

The interesting meeting conducted by Rev. Graham Frank, of Philadelphia, at the Christian church, closed Sunday night. There were six additions, including Misses Cooper and Del Feland, who were baptized in the Hanging Fork yesterday afternoon. Rev. Frank is an excellent preacher and a fine gentleman socially.

To The Voters of The Waynesburg Magisterial District.

Being the democratic nominee for the office of magistrate in the Waynesburg precinct at the next ensuing November election, I wish to say to all the voters of the precinct that if elected, I will locate in the town of Kingsville, where I can be found at all times ready to attend to any business pertaining to the office. I wish further to assure them that the law will be administered without favor or affection and that the peace and good order of the community will be upheld and that I will not deny or defer to any man either justice or right. Respectfully,

CHAS. A. SMITH.

THE COUNTY JUDGESHIP.

In many respects the office of county judge is of more importance and responsibility than even that of circuit judge. It is the court which selects and appoints guardians for children, and the trustees and administrators of estates, and which holds these fiduciaries to the faithful discharge of their trusts; it is the court which provides and cares for the helpless poor; it is the court which keeps in order the hundreds of miles of our public roads, and the bridges which span our streams; it is the court which determines the amount of county taxes and disburses these taxes when collected. In fine, a county judge, to adequately discharge his duties, should be predominantly a man of firmness, sense and integrity.

Apropos of these observations, and of the approaching election of county officers, it is to be earnestly wished that every tax-payer of Lincoln county will—if he has not already done so, read and carefully weigh Judge Bailey's statement published in last Tuesday's issue touching the fiscal affairs of the county. It is a lucid summary of the financial doings of his administration, presented to the people with out parade and with characteristic modesty. It is the unvarnished truth too, and a matter of record where every detail may be verified by any one who chooses to doubt and will consult the open pages of the county court order book. It was, it must be confessed, something in the way of a surprise even to the INTERIOR JOURNAL, which always tries to keep informed as to public matters, for we have not been too much used to find officials that high degree of painstaking and intelligent care for the people's interests which good business man gives to his own. We find it here. It is indeed a magnificent record of which any official might be proud, and it shines all the brighter when contrasted with the feeble and im provident management of certain of his predecessors. Really, though, this contrast is no greater than might naturally be expected between an administration placed in power by the intelligence, character and property of the county, and an administration which is necessarily officered by pie-cutter patriots and discarded democrats and which is representative chiefly of the ideals of our Negro population.

All the requirements of his station, to which we have above referred, have been met by Judge Bailey in a most gratifying manner, as we may hereafter take occasion to show, but the particular feature of his administration to which we just now call attention is the way in which it has dealt with the fiscal affairs of the county. In January, 1898, when he came into office he found our indebtedness to be $59,800. Of this large debt $27,000 bore 6 per cent. interest and $32,800 5 per cent. Of this latter amount the bonds, by their own terms, were to run 30 years, so that the county, however desirous and able to do so, could not get rid of the burden until the end of that period, by which time we should have paid in interest alone $49,200. In addition, the preceding court had left a debt of $4,133, not bonded, to be paid out of the levy of 1898. Ten thousand dollars of the old bonds also fell due in that year, making the debt to be met at the very threshold of his term $34,133, for which not one dollar had been provided. Nor had any provision whatever in the way of a sinking fund, required alike by the law and the commonest prudence, ever been made for the payment at maturity of any portion of our bonded debts. In other words, the county had fallen into the spendthrift habit of living beyond its income, and of selling bonds bearing an inordinate rate of interest to meet the deficit, and had been buying turnpike roads at what will appear fancy prices, when compared with the prices afterwards paid by Judge Bailey, and had been paying for them in the same hap-hazard way, coolly leaving these bonds and the county's credit and honor to take care of themselves as best they might.

These remarkable methods were promptly reversed by Judge Bailey—we say by Judge Bailey, because, as all men know, the magistrates, who meet only occasionally during the year at the court-house, have neither time nor opportunity to give more than the most casual attention to such matters; because, in point of fact, the county judge is the fiscal court. In the year, 1898, and in every year since, the county has lived within its income, paying as it went. In addition the debt of $4,133 was paid at its maturity in 1898. Another batch of the old bonds, $5,000 in amount, was called in and paid off in 1900, and the county treasurer now has $7,000 with which to pay the bonds of July 12, 1897, the moment they fall due. All this has been done, and the ordinary, routine expenses met besides, on the levy of 50 cents to the $100 for 1898, reduced to 47 cents for 1899, and on the levy of 50 cents for 1900, reduced again to 47 cents for the present year. Nor is this all. By patient and skilful negotiation this administration has refunded all of the county bonds which were issued prior to 1898, on such terms, and at such lower rates of interest, and has sold the new bonds, issued for this purpose, at such a premium above their face value, as to have actually saved the people more than $40,000 in money, to say nothing of the saving and enhancing of the county's credit. And still more, and to crown it all, a sinking fund, the first in the county's history, is established to pay our debts when they become due, in which is already accumulated $13,000 for this purpose—not idle—but loaned out and earning interest until the day it is needed. So that, under the policy inaugurated and so skilfully carried out by Judge Bailey, the county of Lincoln, instead of drifting fatuously into bankruptcy, as it was doing, has now its entire indebtedness under control and provided for, and will in a very few years, if the present methods are continued, own its magnificent system of free turnpike roads and be in a position, without feeling it, to Macadamise all its dirt roads, and owe no man nor bank a dollar.

Smaller public services than these have been known in this country to send men to Congress or to seat them in gubernatorial chairs. Judge Bailey, however, makes no pretense of being a statesman or a professional Patriot, and only asks another term of a rather poorly-paid and most laborious office in which to complete the good work which he has so auspiciously begun. There ought not to be any doubt as to the people's response. Nor, from the expression we hear every day, does there seem to be any doubt. His triumphant election, we can but feel, is assured. Mr. D. B. Edmiston seems to have shared in this belief, for neither the threats nor the blandishments of the new republican bosses, Messrs. Varnon and Menefee, availed to shake his prudent resolve to stick fast to his cyclone cellar. He has declined to be immolated—with thanks, and an unsophisticated party of the name of Faulkner, in the Highland district, has been discovered and placed upon the sacrificial altar. Little is at present known of this misguided man save that, for the past year or so, he has been diligently qualifying himself for a judicial career by minding the back door of a still-house. We shall know more of him, doubtless, before the canvass ends, and Mr. Faulkner himself may, peradventure, be somewhat the wiser.

THE Burnams, of Madison, want the whole thing. A. R. Burnam is an appellate judge, C. F. Burnam is State Senator, T. S. Burnam has just been nominated for representative and E. T. Burnam for county attorney. A father and three sons. There is another son, R. R. Burnam, who has not been provided for, which is probably an oversight of the republicans. Possibly they are saving him for mayor of Richmond.

WHILE Gov. Durbin, of Indiana, is attending the conclave in Louisville this week, would it not be a good idea to extract from him a promise to honor a requisition for Hog Jaw Taylor when Gov. Beckham gets ready to make one? It is time Taylor was suffering a little for the death of Gov. Goebel. Good people are tired of the delay of justice.

ELOPING couples will hereafter have to seek another Green. Attorney General Taylor has ordered that no more marriage licenses shall be issued in Jeffersonville or New Albany to non-residents. The traffic in marriages had become so outrageous that even Indiana could not stand it longer.

THE Crab Orchard base ball team waxed the McKinney club 5 to 4 at Crab Orchard Saturday afternoon.

George Florence and Bob Coffey, of this place, assisted the Crab Orchard boys, while Howard Camutz and Hawk Bishop, of Hustonville, pitched and caught for the McKinney nine. The game was a most interesting one and 10 innings were played.

OPENED HIS CAMPAIGN.—Mr. W. B. Cochran, nominated for State Senator by the republicans a week ago, opened his campaign at the Hustonville fair grounds Saturday afternoon by delivering a so-called speech to a crowd composed largely of Negroes. His opponent, Senator George T. Farris, was not invited to be present and of course was not.

CRAB ORCHARD SPRINGS.—This delightful summer resort is still enjoying a splendid patronage, the register showing 100 or more guests. There is no effort at style or fashion, but the people there are getting the best out of life by having a good, quiet, free-and-easy time. The fare is excellent, while the presence of the clever host and excellent hostess is calculated to drive the blues away and make one feel better and enjoy living the more.

WHILE at Pittsburg a month or ago we wrote an article stating that the Pittman Coal Co., of that place, was playing in bad luck, having struck blackjack to such an extent that the mining of the coal was not profitable and that it would be necessary for the company to drive another entry. This information was given us by parties who either had not acquainted themselves with the facts or who probably had motives in so doing. A Pittsburg gentleman, in position to know, tells us that we were misinformed and that it not only was not necessary to drive another entry, but that good, merchantable coal was being mined by the above company. Desiring to do no individual or corporation an injustice we voluntarily make this correction, regretting that we were led into error.

GARRARD democrats are in fine shape and if they don't win everything they go after this fall, we will be greatly surprised. Garrard democrats, like those of Lincoln, have seen republican rule, or misrule rather, and they want no more of it.

THE republicans met here yesterday afternoon and nominated Mr. A. G. Faulkner for county judge, Mr. D. B. Edmiston having declined to accept the nomination made some weeks ago. All of the republican candidates had a say, but for their sakes we will not print their speeches verbatim. In fact we have neither the heart or inclination to do such a thing. It is generally believed that Mr. B. B. King will accept the nomination for representative, which at first he is said to have declined.

THE Brodhead fair had a large crowd Friday and the show of stock and races were the best of the meeting. Good order prevailed throughout, everybody had a good time and most of those who were fortunate enough to be present are sorry that the exhibition is over. A good dividend will be declared and some of the clearings will go toward improving the grounds. Following are some of the awards of Friday: Horse colt, Frank Miller; saddle or harness stallion, Tom Napier; saddle mare or gelding, Jesse Dykes; running walker, Bud Dunn; combined ring, Bud Dunn; fancy harness ring, Len Shannon; model ring, Len Shannon; sweepstakes roaster ring, W. M. Hughes first, J. E. Farris, second; fancy turnout, J. H. Dunn and Miss Hilton first, W. W. Saunders and Miss Goodall second; fancy turnout driven by boy under 18, Lucien Dunn and Miss Roberta O'Bannon first, Wallace Gover and Miss Slaghter second; prettiest baby, Hic Paynter, first, W. M. Fields, of this county, second. The trotting race was won by Mack Hughes, with J. H. King second, and Cochran, third. R. H. Bronaub captured the running race, with C. C. McClure second and Scott Farris third. The mule race was declared off. The track was very muddy and heavy and no records were smashed, although the time was good, considering everything.

THE Lincoln county teachers yesterday selected the following dates for their county meetings as well as their vice presidents and secretaries: Crab Orchard—Vice President, T. J. North; Secretary, Miss Virgie Worrel; first Saturday in October at the Baptist church, Waynesburg—Vice President, H. S. Young; Secretary, L. N. Marcum; fourth Saturday in September at Highland, Hustonville—Vice President, Miss Kate Bogle; Secretary, Miss Florence Bibb; third Saturday in November at Hustonville. Stanford—Vice President, Mrs. Nannie S. Saufley; second Saturday in December at Stanford.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The white teachers' institute begun yesterday at the court-house with some 65 or 70 teachers present. Prof. J. H. Patterson, who gave entire satisfaction last year as conductor, is again in charge and Charles North and Mrs. M. J. Cochran were elected secretary and assistant secretary, respectively. Most of the day was spent in organizing and the real work began this morning. Supt. Singleton made an interesting talk and the following committees were chosen: On program, Prof. J. H. Patterson, chairman; Jacob Elder, H. S. Young, Walker Hunn and Miss Kate Bogle; on entertainment, Mrs. Nannie S. Saufley, Miss Esther Burch and L. R. Hughes; on resolutions, Dr. Hickle, M. Mullins and Mrs. M. J. Cochran.

THE present and prospective county judge of Lincoln, James P. Bailey, has issued through the INTERIOR JOURNAL a statement of the financial condition of the county, which shows that the fiscal affairs have been managed in a most creditable and excellent manner by the court over which he presides, and which, of course, is democratic.

Judge Bailey has made a very superior official, and being surrounded by justices who are in sympathy with every effort at reform and retrenchment, has been able to accomplish much for the good of the county, and we believe and hope the people are sufficiently awake to their own interests to re-elect him by a large majority. The democrats, at least, and they are a long ways in the majority, when the Negro and ignorant vote is eliminated, will stand by him to a man, knowing that good government alone can come from the responsible element of the democratic party, which represents the wealth and intelligence of the county.—Harridburg Democrat.

A CAUSE FOR REJOICING.

There are living in this county quite a number of teachers and other prominent citizens who received their education within the walls of the National Normal University, at Lebanon, Ohio. All of these have a very well place in the community for this famous institution, and we are sure they will rejoice to hear that the outlook for the university for the coming year is very bright indeed. Many improvements have been made and a faculty has been engaged that is probably superior in education and in teaching ability to any that the school has had for years past. The institution will have at its head Prof. J. Oscar Greer, an experienced educator, who, after spending several years in Normal Schools, has taken special work in the Ohio State University, in Harvard and in Yale, receiving from the latter the degrees of A. B. and
M. A.

Graduates from this Institution can be found in all parts of the land, engaged in every occupation. They attribute their well recognized success not alone to the thorough education and practical common sense equipment which one is able to obtain at the university, but also to the energy and spirit which are instilled into everyone who attends this school.

While the training of teachers is an important work of the school, and has given it an enviable reputation, yet in the many other departments which are sustained, young men and women are prepared by the best methods for every business and profession.

There is probably no another school in the land where so many superior advantages can be had in the time and for the small amount of money. The tuition is $8 per session or $35 for the year of 40 weeks.
Good board can be had for $1.50 per week.

The school is located in the beautiful town of Lebanon and since it was established there in 1855 has trained more than 50,000 students. To anyone seeking an education we would recommend this institution.
A catalogue can be had for the asking.

Born, to W. P. Walton, editor of the Harrington Democrat, on the 13th inst., a semi-weekly. It was in full dress and as lively as its mother, the lady who has been giving the public sound democratic doctrine for the past two months. The new advent is a perfect counterpart of the parent, and what it will do for those not walking in that straight and narrow path, will be sufficient. An automobile is on exhibition at our fair, which opened yesterday, and if she were here we would place her upon the front seat and let the vast assembly view the handsome turnout.—Columbia News.

MIDDLEBURG.

School is progressing nicely at Middleburg Normal College. The prospects for a large attendance during the winter term are most flattering.

A protracted meeting will be held at the Christian church beginning early in September. Rev. Logan Godbey succeeds to the pastorate of the M. E. church, made vacant by the death of the late Rev. Purdon.

The oil excitement has struck Casey county and proper developments may outstrip Wayne county. Deposits of coal throughout various sections of the county are also thought to be very rich but which will never be determined until the hand of progress takes hold.

An Epworth League has been organized at the M. E. church at this place and it is hoped that great good will come from the grand organization.
Rev. Logan Godbey was the leading spirit of the organization. The E. L. is a christian society and will not be confined to any sect and it is to be hoped that all young people who have the interest of humanity at heart, will take membership and success will be assured.

It has rained here every day for nearly two weeks. Fields and pastures that only a short time ago were parched and seemingly beyond resurrection, are now wearing a carpet of verdure.
We will have a fair corn crop and with a fairly good fruit crop, we have no serious cause for complaint. The late rains have brought tobacco out wonderfully and a fairly good yield is confidently expected. The water mill here ground a couple of days this week, the first grinding in several weeks.

A goodly number of the representative citizens of the various parts of the county are petitioning our county judge for the privilege of voting on free turnpikes in Casey county and it is almost a "sure thing" that the question will be voted on at the coming November election and if we are not badly off the free turnpikes will win by a large majority. The good people of Casey and adjoining counties as well, are tired of paying toll on roads that are far behind those in counties in which the people voted free pikes.
The present toll system has been a barrier to the progress and development of Casey county from the day that her sister counties did away with the toll gate system.

Casey democrats are tickled over the nomination of Mr. Cochran by the rads for Senator. Mr. Cochran is a clever man but he never saw the day that he could eclipse the great Farris wheel of Garrard, who has a greater hold on the Casey democrats than Mr. C. has on the local G. O. P. The Liberty man can not hope for any assistance at all outside his own party and as this is his debut on the political stage, the good people of this district, if we mistake them not, will hardly turn their back on one whose every effort has been put to the betterment and advancement of our people and State. A more loyal democracy than that of the Casey Ill.
does not exist, and we promise the boys of Boyle, Garrard and Lincoln that if they will only do their part that the re-election of Senator Farris is assured.
Gov. McCreary for U. S. Senator to succeed that miserable misfit Debbe.
M. W. Jones, the people's candidate, is making a clean and honorable canvass for judge and the outlook is very encouraging.
